IP Enabled Services, WC Docket No. 04-36

E-911 Requirements for IP-Enabled Service Providers, WC Docket No. 05-196

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On November 3, 2005, Jim Kohlenberger, Executive Director of the VON Coalition, Glenn Richards, Counsel for the VON Coalition, Jonathan Askin, pulver.com, David Svanda, Consultant to the VON Coalition, Staci Pies, PointOne, Christopher Libertelli, Skype and Todd Daubert, USA Data Net, met with Commissioner Jonathan Adelstein, and his legal advisor Barry Ohlson. On November 4, 2005, Jim Kohlenberger, Glenn Richards, Jonathan Askin, David Svanda, Christopher Libertelli, Todd Daubert and Ray Paddock, Intrado, met separately with Michelle Carey, legal advisor to Chairman Martin, Commissioner Kathleen Abernathy and her legal advisor, Russ Hanser, and Jessica Rosenworcel, legal advisor to Commissioner Copps. At these meetings, the participants discussed the VON Coalition and NENA's Petition for Clarification of the Commission's First Report and Order in the above-referenced dockets and the results of a recent VON Coalition survey concerning progress the industry has made on VoIP 9-1-1. Copies of materials distributed at these meetings are attached.

Sincerely,

/s/
